BlackLine Named to The Software Report's 2022 Top 100 Software Companies List

Accounting automation software leader recognized for being a global industry leader with impressive customer and partner rosters

LOS ANGELES, July 19, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- BlackLine, Inc. (Nasdaq: BL) has been named a Top 100 Software Company for the second year in a row by The Software Report, a leading source for market research and insights, corporate activity, executive news and business happenings related to the software and SaaS (software-as-a-service) sectors. BlackLine is one of only two companies named in the Finance & Accounting category and the only provider of financial operations management solutions, taking a top-50 spot on the 2022 list alongside such global industry leaders as Adobe, Dropbox, Microsoft, Slack, Twilio and Zscaler.

Awardees were selected based on a comprehensive evaluation process including a rigorous review of nomination feedback received in addition to deep research into a company's ratings on Glassdoor, G2, Capterra and other publicly available information. The Software Report takes a holistic view, encompassing product quality, organizational effectiveness, management caliber and ESG (Environmental, Social & Governance) involvement, among other criteria.

According to The Software Report, "Regardless of their size or age, the companies on this year's list are transforming the software industry in their respective categories while delivering incredible value to their customers. From cloud computing to data storage, cybersecurity, artificial intelligence, and workflow management, these are the companies to watch."

BlackLine was recognized by The Software Report as an industry leader with impressive customer and partner rosters on track to further penetrate the $28+ billion opportunity in the financial close, accounts receivable and intercompany accounting markets.

Today, BlackLine has more than 3,800 customers with users in over 130 countries. This latest recognition is testament to the hard work and ongoing support of BlackLine's customers, partners and employees around the world. The complete feature article and 2022 list can be viewed here.
