

BlackLine Brings BeyondTheBlack to Paris, Showcasing Innovation and Best Practice for Modern Finance Teams

PARIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 3, 2026-- BlackLine, Inc. (Nasdaq: BL), the future-ready platform for the Office of the CFO, today announces BeyondTheBlack Paris, taking place on Thursday 25 June 2026 at 28 George V, Paris 8.

BeyondTheBlack Paris will bring together finance and accounting leaders from across France and the wider EMEA region for a full day dedicated to finance transformation, industry best practice and peer-led learning. As part of BlackLine's global BeyondTheBlack event series, the Paris event will focus on how finance teams can streamline operations, improve accuracy and unlock greater strategic value through automation and intelligence.

The programme will feature keynote sessions from Owen Ryan, CEO of BlackLine, and Philippe Omer-Decugis, General Manager, EMEA, followed by a technology-focused session from Jeremy Ung, CTO, who will unveil exclusive major product announcements while examining the role of AI and innovation across finance and accounting. Attendees will also hear from partners and customers through expert panels and real-world use cases.

Throughout the day, finance professionals will be able to engage with BlackLine's solutions and partner ecosystem, participate in interactive breakout sessions covering record-to-report, invoice-to-cash and financial close, and connect with peers facing similar challenges. The event will close with a networking reception celebrating 25 years of BlackLine.

"BeyondTheBlack creates a space for finance leaders to learn from each other and gain practical insight into what modern finance transformation looks like in practice," said Owen Ryan, CEO of BlackLine. "We're delighted to bring the event to Paris and connect with organisations focused on building more resilient, intelligent finance operations."

Philippe Omer-Decugis, General Manager, EMEA at BlackLine, commented: "Paris is an important hub for finance leadership, and BeyondTheBlack Paris offers a unique opportunity for professionals to hear directly from peers, partners and BlackLine experts. We look forward to welcoming the finance community for a day of insight, collaboration and shared learning."
